One of the substantial benefits that will accrue to the Ohio Democrats from the late election will be shown In the next Congressional election The state has been heretofore ac gerrymandered that the Democratic strongholds were turned into Republican districts. The Democratic Legislature will now re-district the State and make a fair division. The district now represented by McKin-ley is one that will be attended to.

Mr. Frank Bell, who has for the last two years filled so acceptably the position of city editor of the New Era, has resigned the position and left yesterday to accept a flattering offer from the Louisville Commercial, to take charge of one of its local news departments. The Kentuckian has heretofore had occasion to commend the tact and fitness for newspaper work manifested by Mr. Bell, as well as his ability and capabilities as a writer. He possesses the qualities necessary to succeed in the journalistic field and the Commercial will find him a very useful member of its staff. He leaves Hopkinsville with the good wishes of a large circle of friends. His place on the New Era will be filled by Mr Alfred I. Wood, a brother of the proprietor and editor of the paper.
